As president of Advisory Team, Inc., Jeff Odell is a passionate builder of businesses who complements his strategic planning skills with strong visionary abilities. Working with a group of proven business leaders, ATI provides management consulting for small technology companies in need of funding or experienced business leadership.

In 1992, he co-founded August Technology, a global manufacturer in the semiconductor industry, built the company, and led it through a strategic merger with Rudolph Technologies in 2006. Using his experience in business and his background in engineering, O’Dell also co-founded FamilyBox, Picket Fence, Café’ Inc., and Be Your Own Sports—online services/tools for individuals or businesses.

O’Dell holds a bachelor’s degree in mechanical engineering and robotics from the University of Minnesota-Twin Cities.
