

Work Type Definition: Signage

I. Description

This Work Type will provide professional consulting services in the area of signage systems for Hennepin County facility projects. This includes all way finding or information conveying devices for both sites and facilities.

II. Description of services to be provided by consultant

Typical project deliverables may include the following:

- Accessibility review / design
- Code research
- Concept sketches
- Construction drawings and specifications
- Cost estimating
- Graphic design
- Presentation materials / graphic renderings
- Signage engineering
- Surveys
- Wayfinding studies